

Bring hands-on science to your classroom!

Introducing all new junior high science professional development.

- Scientists & Engineers
-in-the-Classroom
- Science Workshops for Teachers
- Hands-on, Minds-on Activities

Grade 7 Science Teacher Workshop!

Interactions & Ecosystems + Plants for Food & Fibre

Date: Wednesday, October 11th

Time: 5:30 – 7:30 pm

Location: St. Richard School
5704 Millwoods Road NW, Edmonton

Cost: $35 to register for session

Includes a light dinner, hands-on activities & classroom resources.

**All fees are subsidized thanks to our generous donors.*

Register Online!

www.albertasciencenetwork.ca/programs\_workshops.html

Interactions & Ecosystems + Plants for Food & Fibre

Ready to elevate your science lessons and move beyond the textbook, but not sure how to get started? Amanda Green, a science addict and passionate teacher, will offer hands-on project and lab ideas that connect students to real-world science. Learn from Amanda's tips, tricks and exemplars as she shares her experience with cross curricular projects like Tomatosphere and Martin Gardens. For more inspiration find, Amanda on Twitter @AmandaGTeach.