

Science Professional Development for Gr. 4 Teachers

*Bring the excitement of hands-on science to your classroom!
Handouts and resources included with every workshop.*

- Scientists & Engineers
-in-the-Classroom
- Science Workshops for Teachers
- Hands-on, Minds-on Activities

Plant Growth & Changes Teacher Workshop with Jim Hole!

For: Grade 4 Teachers

Date: Wednesday, May 10th

Time: 6:30 – 8:00 pm (registration at 6:15 pm)

Location: MacEwan University, Downtown Campus
10700 104 Ave, NW, Edmonton

Cost: $35 Includes hands-on activities, resources & refreshments.

Workshop fees are subsidized thanks to our generous donors.

Register Online!

www.albertasciencenetwork.ca/programs_workshops.html

*Space is limited for this unique workshop opportunity.
Register now to avoid disappointment.

Plant Growth & Changes

More than your garden variety teacher workshop; a one-of-a-kind opportunity to learn from Alberta's homegrown plant expert. Jim Hole is a passionate horticulturist, best-selling author and accomplished public educator. It's time to get growing in your classroom and Jim's here to see your Plant Growth & Changes unit take root. Gather new ideas, build confidence and have your burgeoning questions answered.

Alberta Science Network - Edmonton | 5040 118 Street, Edmonton, Alberta, T5X 1Y7

Email: edmontontw@albertasciencenetwork.ca

Ph: 780-448-0055

www.AlbertaScienceNetwork.ca